

Bronze sculpture in Girona

Creation of the bronze sculpture of Brigadier Josep Cabrinetty, depicted in uniform with a drawn sword, made by BENITO artis and installed in the center of Puigcerdà.

Bronze sculpture depicting the full figure of Brigadier Josep Cabrinetty, represented in uniform with a drawn sword. It is the work of sculptor Rossend Nobas, manufactured by BENITO artis. It is installed in the center of Puigcerdà (Girona).

Josep Cabrinetty (Palma de Mallorca, 1822 - Alpens, 1873) was a liberal military officer who distinguished himself in the fight against the Carlists in the Third Carlist War. In 1873, shortly after the proclamation of the First Republic, he saved the town of Puigcerdà from the Carlist siege. He died a few months later in an ambush.

The sculpture is made of bronze, following a meticulous manufacturing process that creates a precise three-dimensional model, ensuring every detail of the sculpture.
